

Retention of Records Policy

Silcoates School (“the School”) recognises that by efficiently managing its records, it will be able to comply with its legal and regulatory obligations and to contribute to the effective overall management of the institution.

The School gives due consideration to:

- Good practice in accordance with the School’s Privacy Policy.
- Statutory duties and government guidance relating to the School, including for safeguarding purposes.
- Disclosure requirements for potential future litigation.
- Contractual obligations.
- The law of confidentiality and privacy.
- Current Data Protection legislation.

Scope of the policy

1.1 This policy applies to all records created, received or maintained by the School in the course of the performance of its various functions, as outlined in the School’s Privacy Policy.

1.2 Records are defined as information created, received or maintained, in hard copy or digital format, which facilitate the running of the School and which are thereafter retained (for a set period) to provide evidence of its activities, transactions or decisions.

Responsibilities

2.1 The School has a responsibility to maintain its record keeping systems in accordance with the prevailing regulatory environment. The person with overall responsibility for this policy is the Headmaster of the school.

2.2 Overall responsibility for records management across the school sits with the Bursar, who will give guidance for good records management practice and will promote compliance with this policy so that information will be retrieved easily, appropriately and in a timely way. Departmental / Faculty records owners will submit at least annually a compliance control sheet certifying that documents are securely stored and accessed appropriately when required. The Bursar will separately verify this compliance on an ongoing basis.

2.3 Individual employees must ensure that records for which they are responsible are accurate, and are maintained and disposed of in accordance with the School’s records management guidelines.
